All:

The meeting has commenced, as Ms. Manolio has chosen not to attend, but her client Joseph Pavlik has, Jennifer and I have dropped the call and the meeting is proceeding without attorneys. No attorneys are to join at this point. You do not have consent to talk to Michael Holley without my participation.

Mr. Brunner,

As noted, I represent Michael Holley a director of LTNC and a founder of the company. Jennifer Reiter represents Toby McBride the CEO of Takeover. I am available to discuss the notes referred to below and any of your clients other concerns at your leisure.

Regards,

Matthew P. Canini

Veronica:

As you know your client Jason Tucker has unlawfully withheld these materials from Takeovers officers and directors and has been acting unilaterally. They cannot be discussed without you forwarding them, which should have been done days ago. This is, in part, the purpose of the meeting, which is commencing now.

 External Email *****

Counsel,

If you choose to proceed with a meeting of LTNC this morning, and because the Notice specifically states that you will be discussing:

“Takeover’s material contracts”

“Takeover’s financial records, status, and corporate financial controls” and Voting on the Board of Directors for Takeover, please make sure you are aware of the following information:

Takeover has received a significant amount of working capital from investor James Deppoleto, Jr. The funds are secured by assets of Takeover, and as of Friday afternoon, counsel for Mr. Deppoleto put Takeover on notice of defaults and a potential of “calling” the Notes. Counsel, Scott Brunner, has specifically requested to be permitted observation at your meeting if you are not going to cancel it.

I am including him on this email (along with his associates) and providing you his direct contact information to ensure that you have full information when discussing Takeover business.
